The Prayers of the People

In this Eastertide we rejoice together at the resurrection of Christ. That the world may be commended to the care of the Good Shepherd, let us pray for the whole people of God in Christ Jesus, and for all people according to their needs, saying: Lord, hear our prayer.

For preachers of the world especially Sean Rowe our bishop and Adele Hatfield our clergy, that may follow in the tradition of Paul and Barnabas, speaking out boldly to the edification of all people, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer

For Christian churches throughout the world, that they may experience unity and may follow Christ their Shepherd, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, Hear our prayer.

For the nations of the world, that they may turn from oppression, imperialism, and warfare, and seek only the welfare of their peoples, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For the homeless, the hungry and the sick especially..., that they may find comfort in the on that shelters them with holy presence, guides them to springs of living water, and wipes every tear from their eyes, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

For all mothers and those who give motherly care, that they may follow the example of the Good Shepherd who leads his children to good pasture, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

In thanksgiving for holy apostles Barnabas and Paul, all to the saints and martyrs, let us give praise to the Lord. Lord, hear our prayer.

The celebrant adds the concluding collect:

Into your hands O Lord, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lay Eucharistic Visitor Sending Prayer:

We send you forth bearing these holy gifts that those to whom you go may share with us one bread and one cup, the communion of Christ’s body and blood.

During the Administration of the Eucharist, all baptized Christians are welcome to come forward to receive the Blessed Sacraments.

All persons are welcome to come forward to receive a priestly blessing.
